

Save the Arts Campaign

T-shirt designs for Spring 2012

Background

- The International Child Art Foundation has served since 1997 as the national art and creativity organization for American children and their international counterparts
- A 501(c)(3) nonprofit based in Washington, DC, the mission of ICAF is to nurture children's creativity and develop empathy through the power of the arts
- ICAF's programs inspire imagination (Arts Olympiad), reduce violence (Peace through Art), remediate suffering (Healing Arts) and foster empathy and global understanding (World Children's Festival)
- More than 5 million children worldwide have directly participated in and benefited from ICAF's programs and educational events over the past fifteen years
- ICAF is the world's largest children's art organization and a leading licensor of child art images to companies that include Pearson Education
- Adidas, Disney, Faber-Castell, Hilton, Lego, and Wacom are among the companies that support or have supported ICAF